3. General

Accreditation provides formal recognition that a AB meets certain standards. These are standards of quality, performance, technical expertise and competence.

Once accredited, a AB is entitled to use the ACCB accreditation symbol and/or appropriate words in its reports, certificates, publicity material and stationery, in accordance with the rules as prescribed in this document.

4. General Format and Display of Accreditation Symbols or Reference to ACCB Accreditation

- 4.1 The ACCB CORPORATE LOGO, as displayed on www.accreditationboard.org, is for the exclusive use of ACCB and may NOT be used by any other AB or organization.
- 4.2 The ACCB accreditation symbols, examples of which are appended to this document are designed for each specific field of accreditation.
- 4.3 The accreditation symbol or reference to accreditation may only be used once accreditation has been granted.
- 4.4 The accreditation symbol shall be used by an accredited AB only under the name or the registered trade name of the legal entity in which it holds accreditation;

4.5 Only Technical signatories who have been confirmed as competent by ACCB are authorized to sign reports or certificates bearing the ACCB accreditation symbol.4.6 The accreditation symbol shall be displayed only in the appropriate format, proportion, colour and wording as detailed in this document.

- 4.7 An accredited AB should display the ACCB accreditation number(s) or reference to ACCB accreditation with the relevant ACCB accreditation symbol on reports or documents containing results covered by the scope of accreditation, in addition to all other requirements detailed in this document.
- 4.8 The ACCB accreditation symbol can only be used in combination with the accredited AB's logo, mark and/or name, and without being more prominent than that of the CAB.
- 4.9 Use of logos, marks or names of other facilities on the same document shall not be used in combination with the ACCB accreditation symbol or in any other way which might imply that ACCB has accredited these facilities.
- 4.10 An AB accredited in more than one field (e.g. Testing and Inspection) may display the different symbols together, or may display only the appropriate accreditation symbol to the audience targeted, accompanied by one or more of the appropriate accreditation numbers.
- 4.11 ACCB accredited AB that holds accreditation in more than one field shall ensure that it does not imply accreditation for any field in which it is not accredited.
- 4.12 The ACCB accreditation symbol or reference to accreditation shall not be:
- i) placed on any product or item which a laboratory has tested or calibrated or which an inspection body has inspected or which a certification body has certified;
- ii) used to imply or create the impression that ACCB approves their product, service or system; or
- iii) used in such a way as to imply that ACCB accepts responsibility for the accuracy of a result, or any opinions or interpretations derived thereon, or approves a calibrated instrument; inspected item, test item or product.
- 4.13 An accredited AB shall, upon suspension of ACCB accreditation, immediately cease to issue certificates and any other materials displaying the ACCB accreditation symbol or containing references to ACCB accreditation.
- 4.14 An accredited AB shall, upon termination of ACCB accreditation, immediately cease distribution of all items on which the ACCB accreditation symbol, or any reference to ACCB accreditation, is displayed.
- 5. Use of the Accreditation Symbol or Reference to Accreditation in Advertising and Publicity.
- 5.1 An AB accredited by ACCB is entitled to display the ACCB accreditation symbol or make reference to ACCB accreditation in its publicity and/or advertising material relevant to the accredited activity, subject to:
- i) the AB identifying the specific areas for which it is accredited, (i.e. Calibration, Testing, Management Systems, Product Certification, Personnel, Environmental, etc.); and

ii) ensuring that ACCB accreditation is not implied for non-accredited activities.

5.2 Permissible examples of publicity and advertising materials include:

i) Letterheads and other corporate stationary, on condition that such stationery is not used for work proposals or quotes if none of the work is within the scope of accreditation;

- 5.3 The ACCB symbol or reference to accreditation may only be displayed on quotations and/or proposals that cover the AB's accredited scope, except when:
- i) the work is performed by an accredited AB under a subcontract. Such work shall be clearly marked on the quotation / proposal as subcontracted; and
- ii) the majority of the work quoted / proposed for falls under the accreditation and all non-accredited work is clearly marked as not accredited.
- 5.4 In the case of Medical Laboratories where accreditation has been granted for the Head Office and multiple branches under different accreditation numbers, the following shall apply if the AB wishes to use the accreditation symbol on generic documentation:
- i) The publicity and advertising materials described in 5.2, including generic request forms with the full array of tests offered by the AB where it is not practical to indicate the accredited tests for each laboratory, shall include the ACCB accreditation symbol, without an accreditation number, but including the following statement: "Refer to www.accreditationboard.org for a list of accredited laboratories and tests".
- ii) Clause 5.4 (i) does not apply to the use of the accreditation symbol or reference to accreditation on reports containing results, or where the accreditation symbol is displayed in the laboratory. The accreditation number of the appropriate laboratory shall form part of the Accreditation Symbol when it is used on reports containing results or displayed in the laboratory.
- 5.5 The use of the ACCB accreditation symbol or reference to ACCB accreditation on items other than material as mentioned in 5.2 is not discouraged, but shall be subject to approved by ACCB.
- 5.6 Approval for the use of the ACCB accreditation symbol or any reference to ACCB accreditation in publicity material relating to a product must be obtained from ACCB.
- 5.7 The ACCB accreditation symbol shall not be used in literature relating to a product unless it is directly located adjacent to the reference to the accredited function.
- 5.8 An accredited AB is not permitted to use the Accreditation Symbol on business cards, in order to avoid any possible confusion with accredited certification of persons.
- 6. Accreditation Symbol or Reference to ACCB Accreditation on Reports and Certificates

6.1 Any certificate or report not displaying the relevant ACCB accreditation symbol or referring to accreditation shall be viewed as issued outside of the AB's accredited scope.

- 6.2 An AB accredited by ACCB that holds accreditation for on-site work shall use its accreditation number with the ACCB accreditation symbol or reference to ACCB accreditation in the same way as for work carried out in the permanent accredited AB.
- 6.3 Where an accredited AB (except for calibration laboratories) wishes to issue a report incorporating a ACCB accreditation symbol or reference to ACCB accreditation incorporating results/inspections from sub-contracted work, the following shall apply: 6.3.1 The certificate/report shall incorporate statements clearly indicating which results have been obtained from sub-contracting;
- 6.3.2 The accredited AB shall take full responsibility for any subcontracted work;
- 6.3.3 Unless it is an accredited branch of the same organization, the accredited AB shall inform the customer of the proposed subcontracting and shall obtain the customer's approval.
- 6.3.4 The accredited AB shall obtain approval from the subcontractor to report excerpts from the subcontractor's report/certificate into the AB's report/ certificate.

 Note: Calibration Facilities may not include results of subcontracted work in their reports/certificates. (Refer to clause 6.4)

- 6.4.1 A ACCB accreditation symbol, or reference to ACCB accreditation, shall not be incorporated into a report that does not contain any results from accredited work.
- 6.4.2 A ACCB accreditation symbol or reference to ACCB accreditation may also be used on certificates/reports that contain results/inspections from both accredited and non-accredited scopes, sub-contracted work, opinions, interpretations, material relating to investigational activities, or promotional material providing that the relevant disclaimer or disclaimers described below are incorporated into the report.
- 6.4.3 Reports incorporating ACCB accreditation symbol or reference to ACCB accreditation, and containing results from both accredited and non-accredited scopes shall contain the following disclaimer:
- "Results marked "Not ACCB Accredited" in this report are not included in the ACCB Schedule of Accreditation for this laboratory/certification body / inspection body".

Wherever the results of these non-accredited scopes appear they shall be marked in an appropriate manner to ensure that they cannot be mistaken for accredited scopes.

6.4.4 When an accredited AB issues reports incorporating ACCB accreditation symbol or reference to ACCB accreditation and containing opinions, interpretations, or other material relating to investigational activities, the following disclaimer shall be incorporated:

"Opinions and interpretations expressed herein are outside the scope of ACCB accreditation".

6.5 Reports incorporating ACCB accreditation symbol or reference to ACCB accreditation, and containing results of tests that have been sub-contracted shall contain the following disclaimer:

This disclaimer shall be clearly visible and not hidden among other text nor be of smaller font than the other text appearing on the certificate.

7. Additional Field-Specific Requirements for the Use of the Accreditation Symbol or Reference to ACCB Accreditation

7.1 Calibration - Certificates, Reports & Labels

- 7.1.1 The ACCB accreditation symbol, or reference to ACCB accreditation, shall not be incorporated into a Calibration Certificate or Calibration Label not containing or relating wholly to results from accredited calibrations except as permitted in section 7.1.2 below.
- 7.1.2 A Calibration Laboratory accredited by ACCB may be permitted, by prior arrangement by ACCB, to report measured values beyond the scope of its accreditation. The measured values concerned shall be clearly identified on the Calibration Certificate and shall be accompanied by a disclaimer appearing either alongside or directly below the measurement result. Measurement results falling outside the scope of accreditation shall form only a small part of the certified measurements.

7.1.3 Calibration Labels on Equipment:

7.1.3.1 An accredited Calibration Laboratory may, subject to agreement by the customer, attach a calibration label to an item of equipment that it has calibrated using calibration methods covered by its scope of accreditation.

7.1.3.2 The Calibration laboratory should, wherever practicable, use a label under the following conditions:

- (iv) the label does not imply compliance with a specification, approval of quality or permanence of calibration; and
- (v) on recalibration of the instrument the previous label should be removed and replaced by a new label relating to the latest calibration.
- 7.1.3.3 Calibration labels containing the accreditation symbol should not give the impression that ACCB has approved or calibrated the equipment.
- 7.1.3.4 The accredited laboratory is responsible for the appropriately controlled storage and use of labels.
- 7.1.3.5 As a minimum, the following information shall be indelibly marked on the label:

Note 1: The recalibration date may be marked on the label by the customer for whom the calibration work was done, or by the calibration laboratory if so instructed by the customer.

- Note 2. Regulators may require additional information to be included on the label.
 - 7.1.3.6 Where the etching or engraving of an approved design label on equipment (e.g. of volumetric glassware) is required, full details shall be submitted to ACCB for prior approval.
 - 7.1.3.7 Where it is not practical to affix a label to a calibrated instrument (e.g. gauge blocks), the label may be fixed to the container. The label should be placed in a position where it is clearly visible when the instrument is in use.

The label design, material, and method of fixing shall be such that it does not affect the performance of the instrument and can be replaced by a new label when the instrument is recalibrated.

7.2 Certification - Certificates

7.2.1 A certificate issued by an accredited AB incorporating the ACCB accreditation symbol or reference to ACCB accreditation shall contain a statement identifying the title and number of the standard against which the certification was done, or other means of clearly identifying the scope of the certification. (i.e. ISO 9001 etc.).

7.3. Legal Metrology - Verification Reports or Certificates

- 7.4.2 Inspection labels containing the accreditation symbol should not give the impression that ACCB has approved or inspected the item.
- 7.4.3 The label shall clearly indicate that the item has been inspected, e.g., "inspected by ..," or "inspected on ..." etc. In addition, the inspection label shall include the following information:
- i) the name and accreditation number of the accredited inspection body;
- ii) equipment identification;
- iii) date of the inspection; and
- iv) cross reference to the inspection report issued in respect of the inspection.
- 7.4.4 The accredited Inspection Body is responsible for the appropriately controlled storage and use of labels.

8. Misuse of the Accreditation Symbol or Reference to Accreditation

- 8.1 The following instances constitute an offence and are punishable in accordance with the Accreditation for Conformity Assessment, Calibration and Good Laboratory Practice Act No. 19 of 2006:
- 1. The misuse of the ACCB accreditation symbol by accredited facilities, where accreditation is claimed for areas not accredited;
- 2. The use of the accreditation symbol or reference to accreditation where a AB, or parts of their scope has been placed into suspension or its accreditation withdrawn;
- 3. Misrepresentation of data from an accredited AB.

9. Sanctions

- 9.1 ACCB shall take appropriate action to deal with incorrect or misuse of the ACCB accreditation symbols or reference to accreditation. This action may include:
- 1. request for corrective actions;
- 2. withdrawal of certificates/reports;
- 3. publication of transgression; and if necessary
- 4. legal action and/or withdrawal of accreditation status.
